

Instructions

The Graduate Programs at Parsons The New School for Design use the 'Self-Managed Application Process' for admission to its programs. Submit your application online, and submit any supplemental mailed application materials to the Admission Office in one packet, whenever possible.

- This cover sheet should be used only for documents that must be sent separately from your online application. Do not send copies of any forms or materials that you submitted through the online application.
- Official sealed transcripts should be included with your packet, if possible. If you have foreign credentials requiring translation and evaluation, refer to your application instructions for detailed information.
- Sealed recommendations should be included with your packet (or, if you are applying online, your recommenders may use the online system as well).
- If required, standard Test Scores (GRE, TOEFL) should be sent to Parsons The New School for Design by the relevant organization. Our GRE and TOEFL school code is 2638.
